

ATTENTION STUDENTS!!!

Enter the 2011 Earth Day Nature & Wildlife Photo Contest

The Grosse Ile Nature & Land Conservancy invites students to celebrate Earth Day 2011 by participating in their Nature & Wildlife Photo Contest! Photos will be exhibited during the Grosse Ile Earth Day Celebration at Centennial Farm on Sunday May 1st from 1 - 4 pm. Entries will be formally judged for awards. A People's Choice award will be chosen by ballot during the Earth Day program.

Who? Any high school or middle school student photographer is eligible to participate. Contestants shall only submit their own photos. Contest is not limited to Grosse Ile students.

What? We are looking for photos taken in Southeastern Michigan that inspire us to appreciate and steward our environment: the air, water, land, resources, wildlife, and ecosystems. Entry categories are:

Nature – Photos of plants, flowers, trees, waterscapes, etc.

Animals - Photos whose main focus is on animals (wild animals; no pets).

Landscape - Photos with scenery as main focus (if present, buildings and people are only incidental to subject).

Photos may be any size from 4x6" to 11x14" in color or black & white, digital or traditional.
Photos must be mounted on an 11x14" whiteboard.

When? All original entries must be received by 9 pm on Wednesday April 27th. No time period restriction on the date of photo.

Where? Grosse Ile Earth Day Celebration at Centennial Farm – Sunday May 1st from 1 - 4 pm. Winners and People's Choice awards will be announced following judging and voting (1 -3pm).

Why? Express yourself! Show your talent and appreciation of Mother Earth!

Limit 3 per student.
